

MORGAN HUNTER COMPANIES

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF EMPLOYEE AWARENESS OF TRADE SECRET LAWS - CONFIDENTIAL AGREEMENT

I am an employee of Morgan Hunter Corporation. As a result of my employment, certain business records and information have been made available to me that I acknowledge are trade secrets.

1. I understand that a trade secret consists of information (not readily compiled from publicly available sources) which is available to me during the course of my employment.
2. This information (trade secrets) consists of the names, addresses, telephone numbers, qualifications, education, accomplishments, experience and resumes of all persons who have applied or been recruited for employment, for either or both permanent and temporary jobs.
3. Trade secrets also include job order specifications and the particular characteristics and requirements of persons generally hired by a client company, as well as specific job listings from companies with whom my employer does, or attempts to do business, as well as, mailing lists, computer runoffs, financial or other information not generally available to others.
4. I acknowledge that as a consequence of my employment, a duty has been imposed upon me not to remove such material or copy it, or commit it to memory to use outside of my present employment.
5. During the course of my employment and in the event of its termination, or during the course of any future employment, or undertaking, I agree not to disclose such information to any party, nor to use such information on my own behalf.
6. I understand, that the solicitation of any temporary or permanent employment applicant, recruited candidate, or temporary employee, subsequent to my termination from employment with employer, constitutes the illegal taking of trade secrets for which action, I could be enjoined and be liable for money damages.
7. I have received a copy of this acknowledgement.
